A MEETING OF IRISH RESI-

In the name of the Prophet, I am writing to you. We understand that Mr. W. D. Junior, the well-known schoolmaster, intends to send to the Buenos Ayres exhibition some African fig trees which he has successfully acclimated in this country.

In the swimming matches of a mile and 200 yards on Sunday the English representative of the Rowing Club beat the Marina man, Sr. Pablo, with the greatest ease, although the latter seemed to lay the flattering unction to his soul that he was the Champion Swimmer of the Plate. Not a bit of it, amigo!

The tramway curves in the city are getting so out of joint that when going round them passengers and cars are shaken to bits, and the fatiguing effect which our colleague the Courier attributes to tramway riding, in this case of ladies, is very much lessened, to say nothing of the risk of broken bones. Why do not the Companies adopt the flexible axlebase which is now in work on many European railways, and has proved of great economy and comfort? We suppose it would suit tramways as well as railways, and all jolting and straining while going round curves is avoided.

There will be grand religious doings at San Carlos Church, Almagro, to-day, it being the Feast of Saint Francis of Sales.

THE DISTRESS IN IRELAND.

To the Editor of the Standard, Dear Sir,

Your announcement in to-day's Standard that a scheme for relieving the impending distress in Ireland had been initiated here previous to Father Martin's earnest appeal, will be a pleasant surprise to many of your readers. It is, however, necessary that any movement in this direction should not rely upon isolated efforts, but that an organized system be set on foot to bring before the notice of the numerous Irish community in these countries the dire necessities to which their brethren at home are exposed.

It is useless to expect money grants from the British Government to defray passages except for emigrants to their own colonies; not only is it opposed to their declared policy, but, unfortunately, emigration to the Plate is not looked upon favourably by the authorities at home. The necessary funds must be forthcoming from ourselves, and it only requires a united effort for the amount to be raised. The English-speaking priests here well know how liberal Father Pat is when his revered Obed is in question, and his country and countrymen come next in his warm heart and fine hand.

Some representative member of the Irish community should call a meeting at once to name a Central Committee, and local Committees should be appointed throughout the camp. It will not be difficult to find an agent at home who will see that the passages are impartially distributed. Unless some such practical steps be taken our help will arrive too late, and while we are dazing our eyes with Government grants and land concessions, many of our beloved countrymen will be in the cemetery or the poor-house, and many more will have taken their honest hearts and strong hands to the colonies or the United States.

Yours truly,
Bis dat qui cito dat.
21st Jan., 1880.

To the Editor of the Standard,

Dear Sir,

It has been publicly stated, by those best informed, that, in large districts in the West of Ireland, a great number of people had no sufficient food or fuel for the approaching Winter, or any hope of employment by which to procure either. The Duchess of Marlborough, in her appeal to the Times, says that "in seven counties there will be extreme misery and suffering among the poor, owing to the want of employment, loss of turf, loss of cattle, and failure of potatoes, unless a vigorous effort of private charity is got up to supplement the ordinary system of Poor Law Relief." This, from such a quarter, is eloquent enough, and needs little comment, and the Winter months are passing, and nothing has yet been done by the wealthy Irish Colony of Buenos Ayres to give—out of the abundance with which God has blessed them—a small share towards mitigating the wants of their fellow countrymen and women in Ireland. I say advisedly nothing, because the "offers" described by Father Martin, from San Nicolas, and your visionary scheme of land grants, are but tantalizing feasts, to which you invite the starving Irish poor to water their mouths at! They ask for bread and you give them lands, somewhere between Buenos Ayres and Patagonia! While another dangles tens of thousands of paper dollars before their excited gaze. The horse starves while the grass is growing.

Unfortunately—and chiefly owing to those who should be foremost in promoting it—there is no organization of the Irish community here, and no centre from whence communication can be rapidly established with its members. Hence any good work attempted has to struggle with many difficulties not met with by other nationalities.

I am satisfied that there are at least a thousand Irishmen and women in the Province of Buenos Ayres alone who can easily afford, to and will gladly, contribute one thousand dollars m.p. each to our charitable object. Let us then set about collecting this million dollars at once, and remit it before it be too late. I begin by offering mine, and as soon as nine others are found to do likewise, I propose that an account be opened at the London and River Plate Bank, to be called "The Irish Distress Relief Fund Account," with the first ten thousand dollars. Let some two responsible persons here be named as trustees, in whose name the account will be kept. Let the sums paid in be remitted fortnightly to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, to be added to the National Fund being raised under his patronage, and for distribution by the Committee acting under his Presidency. Let due acknowledgment of the subscriptions be made here in the papers day by day, as well as periodical acknowledgments, by the trustees, of the sums remitted by them to Ireland.

Let there be no intermediary depositaries, for subscriptions, but let each person who wishes to subscribe send his or her mite to the Bank direct or to one or other of the trustees to be named and, in short, let us have "deeds not words." By all means, let those who can give their 10,000 or their 5000 m.p. it can hardly be better invested for my part I should be quite content to see my idea of a thousand subscribers of 1000 m.p. each realized. It would form a pleasant New Year's gift to our starving countrymen, would carry comfort to many a desolate hearth, and better still would prove that prosperity does not always bring our better instincts, or make us callous to the appeals of our less fortunate fellow-men.

I need hardly anticipate some assistance from our English neighbours here; their purses are seldom closed against any appeal for charity, and I am not sure that the Murcia claim for assistance, to which they responded so liberally, was more urgent than that now made on behalf of the starving poor in Ireland.

An Irishman.
Buenos Ayres, Jan. 27th, 1880.

ANGLO-ARGENTINE COLLEGE, CABALLITO.

With much pleasure we guard the attention of parents and guardians to the following report of the Christmas Examinations at Mr. Reynolds's well known College at Caballito, an institution that will bear comparison with the very best and largest in this country.

The situation of this college on the Flores Road, midway between the City and Flores, at Caballito, is the most healthy about this city. The grounds are beautifully laid out, and the house was especially built for a large collegiate institution.

T. G. gold market advanced five cents owing to a well known Argentine broker buying largely for the end of the month. The business of the day in gold was a large amount of nearly a million of patacones; two well known brokers sold for cash and Saturday over two hundred thousand patacones, which gold is "effective." As we near the end of the month the interest taken in the gold market increases, and there was an accumulation at the ring to-day that since the month began.

Cedulas ruled very quiet, only 8,500 sold at 82 1/2. Nat. Bonds were sold at 80, and Treasury Notes at 75 1/2. In N. B. Bank Shares there was an active movement and large sales for Saturday at 93 1/2.

The arrival of the Equator was announced by telegram, she brings 2,500 boxes of wine and 2400 barrels other merchandise. The Humberto I. sailed from Genoa on 24th inst. direct for the Plate, and on 24th the Italia arrived at Barcelona.

The National Minister of Hacienda is about to name a Syndicate in London composed of merchants to represent the best speculation in Argentine Stock, rather a difficult business. No one seems to know the London quotations of Argentine, but telegrams have come announcing a sudden rise in P. V. values from £10 to £18.10.

The suspension of a well-known lighterman was announced on 'Change. Respecting the break in the cable rumored by Havas, there must be some mistake, as we saw telegrams to-day dated London yesterday afternoon, 4 p.m.

The French packet Sanagal cleared to-day, with a good list of passengers and a full cargo. There was nothing further reported in exchange for this mail, the business having closed yesterday.

According to the following advices from London, Japanese wool-buyers may soon be looked for in this Plaza Onco. We believe there is no one in that market who can speak Japanese, and even the German barbaqueros. The London papers say—

"A new market for South American wool has just been opened at Sendai, in Japan. A cloth factory has recently been started by the Government, but as the entire supply of wool is small the raw material will have to come from Buenos Ayres."

"Curapay, the Buenos Ayres tanner's bark, lately introduced into the London market, has recently been very good demand. It is stated to average 18 per cent. of tannin."

The retirement of Don Estrelin Urzua from the well-known firm of S. Urzua and Sons, of which, for over a quarter of a century he was the distinguished partner, has been the talk of the Plaza. Don Estrelin has retired on a very large fortune, and is today one of the largest landed proprietors and estate-holders in the Plate.

The engineer who, for the building the Santa Fe railway to the colonies has gone to Santa Fe, the capital having been found in this city and the company formed; the works begin at once.

Cedulas—For cash 8,500 at 82 1/2. National Bonds 1883—For cash 1,500 at 80.

Treasury Bonds—For cash 8,500 at 75 1/2. National Bank Shares—For cash 2,000 shares at 60 1/2.

For Jan. 31st, 1,100 shares at 60 1/2. For Feb. 29th, 100 shares at 60 1/2.

Gold at afterhours ruled weaker, and the new was current that at last an arrangement between the political parties had been arrived at, and a third candidate named, both Roca and Tejedor resigning. It was hinted that Dr. Du. Manuel Quintana is the man.

Exchange was done today at 5.25 and 5.26, two banks the principal takers. 300,000 first class German paper passed yesterday at 4.15, and 400,000 first at 4.14.

Captain Lawson, Commander of the Guadalupe, was welcomed on 'Change, and congratulated on his quick passage and the large amount of gold he brought out. The Texas, we hear, will be due on 24th. This shows that quick passages are now the order.

Freights rule firm and the same; all the steamers in port, the brokers say, are engaged, and much cargo offering.

Mr. H. A. Goren has been appointed the agent of the Marine Insurance Company—one of the best known English companies.

The report of the Fomento de Barracas for the last half year was given to-day. A dividend of 5 per cent. was declared for the last half year is proposed.
